3.06.700 ADOPTIONS (pg. 77-78)

3.06.710 JURISDICTION

The Pyramid Lake Tribal Court shall have Jurisdiction to hear, approve or deny applications for adoption of or by members of those eligible for membership of the Pyramid Lake Tribe at a hearing conducted in private.

3.06.720 PROCEDURE

- 1.) Adoption proceedings may be instituted by filing a Petition with the Tribal Court which shall conduct the Proceedings in accordance with tribal procedures for civil action.
- 2.) Prior to the hearing, the Tribal Court shall cause an investigation to be made to determine what people have parental or other rights as regards the child to be adopted unless such rights have been terminated by the tribal Court or other court of lawful jurisdiction.
- 3.) At the hearing the Tribal Court shall question each parent or other persons with rights as regards the child to be adopted unless otherwise terminated. In a consensual adoption proceeding, the question shall be directed at determining whether the person consents to the termination of his or her rights to the child, and whether the person fully understands the consequences of the adoption proceedings. Unless each person fully understandings the effects of the adoption and knowingly consents to the adoption, the proceedings shall be terminated.
- 4.) The person or persons seeking to adopt the child shall appear before the court and be questioned by the court as to their qualifications as adoptive persons. The court may order such other investigation and reports of the adoptive household as are reasonably necessary to demonstrate the qualifications of the adoptive persons. Generally, Social Services shall accept the applications for adoption from interested persons screen the applicants and complete through investigation into their background and suitability prior to Hearing of the Petition to adopt. Written report of findings and recommendation shall be presented to the Court at Hearing of the Petition to Adopt.
- 5.) If the child is over the age of fourteen (14) years, the child must also appear before the Court and consent to the adoption in writing.
- 6.) After the court has heard all the facts on such adoption proceedings, and believes that it is to the best interests of the child to be adopted, it shall enter an Order accordingly which shall be kept in the records of the Pyramid Lake Tribe, Bureau of Indian Affairs and the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the State of Nevada.
